

How to become a life member of NDAC July 2017

Life Membership shall be granted for any athlete, coach or official who is selected to represent Australia at an international competition sanctioned by the International Amateur Athletics Federation.

Life Membership shall be granted to volunteers who give ten or more years extraordinary service to the club.

Life Membership shall be granted to athletes who complete ten consecutive years for the club, commencing from the start of competitive athletics - Under 9. In circumstances where consecutive years are not achieved but has reached the desired criteria, the committee shall have the discretion to award Life Membership based on those circumstances.

Athletes who become Life Members, no longer have to pay club fees (association payments still need to be made).

These rules are not retrospective.

Life Membership can be revoked under extreme circumstances at the discretion of the committee.

Life Membership enables the right to vote at AGMs.

Life Membership applicants will be discussed and agreed upon at the General Committee Meeting prior to the AGM.